Research Institute of Machinery Industry Economic & Management (MIEM)

May. 2020 - Aug. 2020

Research assistant

Beijing & Henan, China

- Research projects:
Taikang Rural Revitalization Development Project.
(Taikang Rural Revitalization was a project conducted by the Taikang town government in Henan province and MIEM to investigate how to alleviate poverty in the rural area of Taikang.)
- Conducted surveys, interviewed local farmers to understand local poverty issues, and researched recent government plans and social assistance programs.
- Identified targeted inefficiency in social welfare by discovering that 27% of the 91 sampled households with income below the social assistance eligibility threshold did not receive government assistance for poor families (subsistence allowance).
- Collaborated with the team to interview a state-owned company's employees for one of its rural development projects; independently wrote a research report to highlight the project's cost and benefits, which was accepted as a part of the program's final report.
