

DOCTORATE IN CLINICAL SOCIAL WORK

Assessment Data Collected during the Academic Year (2024-2025) Program Option #1:
(HYBRID)

CORE EXPERTISE AND SKILL	CORE EXPERTISE AND SKILL BENCHMARK	PERCENTAGE OF STUDENTS ACHIEVING BENCHMARK
Engage in systematic inquiry that adheres to scholarly conventions	84%/B or above will demonstrate competence on rubric ² for final proposals in both Methods of Inquiry: Quantitative Research Methods and Qualitative Inquiry (averaged)	83%
		100%
Use and evaluate research-informed practice critically and at an advanced level	84%/B or above will demonstrate competence on rubric for Assignment 1: Application of EBP 6-Step Process to Social Work Practice Question in Methods of Inquiry: Quantitative Research Methods	100%

Develop and disseminate practice-relevant knowledge through a variety of channels, such as teaching, scholarship, professional presentations, mentoring, and administration	Submission of final accepted dissertation to Scholarly Commons.	3-year mark – 2022 cohort 11 of 20 finished. 55% 4-year mark – 2021 cohort 17 of 18 finished. 94% 5-year mark – 2020 cohort 14 of 22 finished. 63%
Demonstrate leadership in social work practice and education	84%/B or above will demonstrate competence on Leadership Self-Assessment and Development Plan, and Lesson Plan Development	Leadership Self- Assessment and Development Plan 100%
		Lesson Plan Development 93%
Develop and maintain substantive expertise in one or more areas of social work practice	Rating of 2 or 3 on 0-3 rating assessment of literature review and its integration into the discussion of findings and implications of the dissertation	100%