Global Course Student Procedure (Copy included in Student Resource Section of the Website)

Pre-registration:

- Attend global course information session
- Complete application for global course

Once accepted and registered in global course:

- Attend group travel health session for course, complete health form and submit to trip coordinator
- Watch Penn's international traveler training video here
- Get any required vaccines*
- Apply for any required visas*
- Make sure passport is current, including duration of course abroad – provide copy to trip coordinator
- Sign Assumption of Risk and Release from Liability Form w/ Attestation* form, submit this to course instructor or TA
- Refer to Penn-Affiliated student travel abroad checklist
- Make flight arrangements according to instructor instructions
- Familiarize yourself with travel insurance plan
- Familiarize yourself with International SOS re: 24/7 assistance abroad
- Complete Penn Open-Pass at least 14 days prior to travel and every day during travel

*may be included in international health and risk management session